

IN THIS LESSON

LIKES & DISLIKES

LIKE + NOUNS

KEY LANGUAGE LIKES AND DISLIKES WITH NOUNS

You can use these verbs to talk about nouns.

She likes tennis.

Max doesn't like pizza.

I love chocolate.

This means you really like it.

They hate coffee.

This is stronger than "don't like."

Use "do not" or "don't" and "does not" or "doesn't" to make negative statements.

TIP

"Don't like" means "dislike," but people use "don't like" more often in spoken English.

FURTHER EXAMPLES LIKES AND DISLIKES WITH NOUNS

I love fries.

You don't like baseball.

The cat doesn't like its food.

Oliver hates board games.

Exercise

MATCH THE PICTURES TO THE CORRECT SENTENCES

Shania hates mice.

Sam doesn't like TV.

Ava and Elsa love the mountains.

Cats don't like the rain.

Manuel likes his book.

WRITE THE NEGATIVE OF EACH SENTENCE USING "DOESN'T" OR "DON'T"

Jack likes London.

Jack doesn't like London.

1

Imelda hates pasta.

Imelda doesn't hate pasta.

2

My dog loves steak.

My dog doesn't love steak.

3

Our grandfather likes coffee.

Our grandfather doesn't like coffee.

4

I love the sea.

I don't love the sea.

5

Sam and Jen hate hockey.

Sam and Jen don't hate hockey.

6

You like the countryside.

You don't like the countryside.

7

We like our new cell phones.

We don't like our new cell phones.

LIKE+VERBing

They like playing chess.  Ed doesn't like cycling.

I love swimming.  She hates shopping.

Vi and Lu love playing golf.  I don't like working late.

Elliot loves watching birds.  You like drinking coffee.

Exercise

 LISTEN TO THE AUDIO AND MATCH THE LIKES AND DISLIKES WITH THE CORRECT ACTIVITIES

Person	Activity
Jill loves...	Drinking tea
Samuel hates...	walking the dog
Josh loves...	Playing the guitar
Davina doesn't like...	Eating cakes
Daniella likes...	Cleaning his bicycle

Note: A large diagonal line is drawn across the table, and an orange arrow points from 'Davina doesn't like...' to 'Cleaning his bicycle'.

VOCABULARY REASONS FOR LIKES AND DISLIKES

You can use these adjectives to talk about why you like something.

exciting

interesting

tiring

fun

delicious

disgusting

boring

KEY LANGUAGE "DO" QUESTIONS ABOUT LIKES AND DISLIKES

Use "do" or "does" to ask if someone likes something.

Use "do" to ask a question.

Do you like chocolate?

You can use "it" to avoid repeating the subject.

Yes, I do. It's delicious.

Do you like fishing?

No, I don't. It's boring.

KEY LANGUAGE "WHY" QUESTIONS ABOUT LIKES AND DISLIKES

You can use "why" to find out the reasons why someone likes or dislikes something.

Use "why" to ask the reason.

Why do you like basketball?

You can use "because" to link the two parts of your answer.

I love it because it's exciting.

Why don't you like skating?

I hate it because it's tiring.

Exercise

ANSWER THE QUESTIONS OUT LOUD, USING THE WORDS IN THE PANEL

Why do they like pasta?

They like pasta because it's delicious

1 Why do you like English class?

I like English class because

it's interesting

2 Why do you love skating?

We love skating because

it's exciting

3 Why does Luca hate cleaning?

He hates cleaning because

it's boring

it's exciting

~~it's delicious~~

it's boring

it's interesting